At $:10 o'clock, W. T. McCreight, who officiated as president of last year's street fair and carnival, called meeting to order, and stated that the object of the meeting was the election of a president, the naming of a board of directors and other officers, After this, Alfred Grunsfeld asked if ninations for president were in order, and when informed that such a procedure had been followed at previous fair meetings, he placed before the meeting the name of Mr. Me-Creight to officiate as president under the same conditions which governed that position last year. Addressing the secretary of the meeting, A. R. D. Carscallen, P. F. McCanalso nominated Mr. McCreight for the same office, and after receiving several seconds, the secretary put the nomination before the meeting, which

Thus. Hughes then moved, the motion being seconded, that the president, with the aid and advice of the executive committee, be authorized to appoint one vice president from each of the counties of the territory.

On motion of C. H. Hawley, a com miltee of three-C. B. Hawley, Alfred Grunsfeld and Thus. Hughes being named-were appointed to select a board of directors. They submitted the following names, which were unanmously adopted by the meeting:

Alfred Grunsfeld, P. F. McCanna, O. N. Marron, J. A. Weinman, Thomas Hughes, A. A. Trimble, Simon Stern, Mike Mandell, George F. Albright, George A. Campfleid, C. F. Myers, C. B. Hawley, John S. Beaven, A. Everitt, W. Ward, E. L. Washburn, Wallace Hesselden, Joe Harnett, A. B. McGafrey, Ben Bothe, William Kieke, B. Toti, man, H. Brockmeler, M. W. Flournoy, Rodey, Frank Lee, M. H. Denahoe, A. W. Kunz, J. D. Eakin, Neill B. Field, W. C. Leonard, C. F. Waugh, Robert E. Putney.

It was moved and seconded that the president appoint an executive comnitice of six members, with himself as ex-officio member and chairman, at some future date, and that the execu- [ tive committee, when named and or ganized, be authorized to select the reasurer of the fair association.

In order to make those present feel good, the president stated that all bills of last year's fair had been faithfully audited by P. F. McCanna, the efficient chairman, and the old executive comnyttiee, and all bills had been guld, besides a few old accounts, and that there remained in the bank a cash baiance of $164.93.

This information brought A. Everitt. treasurer, to the front and he submitted a brief report as follows (the full and complete financial report having been published in the dally newspapers of the city a week after last year's Receipts from all sources.....$6,656.25

Cash on hand ...... .... # 164.93 The report was received with genuthe delight and enthusiasm, and shows a nice little nest egg to begin work on

Mr. Hughes declared that, with such i financial showing, Albuquerque ought to give a $10,000 fair this fall.

The president stated that the fair of last year was an $5,000 show on a $5,000 basis, whereupon O. N. Marron went Mr. Hughes' proposition $5,000 better and stated that Albuquerque must give a $15,000 show this fall.

These figures are quite large and enthusiasin was growing every minute, when Mr. Grupsfeld stated that the territorial metropolis must not stop at odd figures and he suggested that a $20,000 fair be the "watch-word" for this full's festivities. The meeting then adjourned, and the ball started in good carnest for a big show the coming fail.

The appointments of vice presidents and the naming of an executive committee will be in order in a few days.
